Re: Withdrawal of Jared D. Shepherd from Hoff Barry, P.A.

Dear Ms. St. George:

This letter is a joint communication from Hoff Barry, P.A., Keller Lenkner LLC, Consovoy McCarthy, PLLC, and Campbell Knutson, P.A.

As you know, the City of Duluth ("City") is party to a contingency fee agreement with Hoff Barry, P.A., Keller Lenkner LLC, and Consovoy McCarthy PLLC, dated April 4, 2019 ("Contingency Agreement"). Under that agreement, attorney Jared Shepherd is serving as local counsel with respect to In re: National Prescription Opiate Litigation, 1:17-MD-2804 ("Opioid Litigation").

You are hereby notified that effective at close of business on April 1, 2021, Mr. Shepherd will have withdrawn as a partner of Hoff Barry, P.A. Effective April 2, 2021, Mr. Shepherd will be employed with Campbell Knutson P.A., 860 Blue Gentian Road Suite #290, Eagan, Minnesota 55121, https//ck-law.com. Mr. Shepherd will continue his relationship as local counsel at Campbell Knutson P.A. for Keller Lenkner, LLC and Consovoy McCarthy, PLLC.

From April 2, 2021 forward, Hoff Barry, P.A. will withdraw from representation of the City. Pursuant to an agreement dated March 15, 2021, Hoff Barry retains a 10% interest in any recovery that Jared Shepherd is entitled to under the terms of the Contingency Agreement.

Please note that it is the Client's choice who will provide your legal representation going forward. You may choose to remain as a client of Jared Shepherd at Campbell Knutson, P.A., Keller Lenkner LLC, and Consovoy McCarthy PLLC, pursuant to the terms of the previously executed Contingency Agreement, or another lawyer or law firm of your choice.
