John,

Just to clarify, the consulting related to the ongoing data file updates, literature searches, and paper reviews is no longer needed. The consulting provided by you is greatly valued and appreciated.

I hope that your collaboration with the manuscript will continue as well as other consulting support in the future.

Kind Regards,

Bill:

No problem. Dale had me doing things to keep a finger of the pulse of things going on around the world, especially to try to keep bad papers out of the literature. I will stop all activities on behalf of 3M immediate. I assume that you will be able to finish off the blood manuscript so I will plan to not put any additional effort into that paper. Please let me know if it is ever submitted so that I can follow it's progress.

We always enjoyed working with your team. Best wishes in the future.

Sincerely,

John P. Giesy
